Dear Mr. Possamai:

Thank you for your letter of February 3, 1989, concerning a telephone conversation you had with a member of my staff concerning an article that Canadian Press had written on environmental hypersensitivity.

I have talked to Mr. , and we have agreed that his approach was perhaps not altogether appropriate in the circumstances. At the same time, I know that Mr. is a thoroughly professional officer and I am sure that there can have been no question on his part of wishing to exercise any improper influence with respect to the CP story.

Thank you again for taking the time to write.

Yours sincerely,

Maxwell Yalden
